

DOROTHY K. ATKINSON, 1702 GROVE AVENUE, NORTH CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Thanks for your interest in our rooted African Violet Leaves. The enclosed list is a cross-section of dependable varieties both in older varieties, many new varieties and very new varieties. All leaves are cut from vigorous young plants free from any disease or nematodes. You may be sure that varieties difficult to grow because of inherited plant weakness never appear in our lists nor do new varieties that are of no worth, no matter how widely advertised they may be. They have been treated with VC-13 so wait at least six months before treating again--in case you are using VC-13.

Leaves are shipped in two and a quarter inch black Plymouth Pots or plastic pots, the same pots they are rooted in, therefore, there is no damage to the root system or the young plantlets.

Shipments are sent to you by PREPAID PARCEL POST, SPECIAL HANDLING AND INSURED. No other grower or shipper of potted African Violet Leaves gives you this service FREE TO YOUR DOOR.

P R I C E: SIX different leaves (varieties) for $4.00.

You may order as many units of six as you desire providing each unit is six leaves of different varieties. WE DO NOT SHIP LESS THAN SIX LEAVES NOR FOR AN AMOUNT LESS THAN FOUR DOLLARS. WE DO NOT SELL WHOLESALE.

(PLEASE MAKE SECOND CHOICE AND WRITE YOUR NAME VERY CAREFULLY. THANK YOU.)

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in the new administration.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the financial state of the country at the beginning of the year. The report states that the country is in a sound financial position, with a strong treasury and a low level of public debt. It also mentions the recent increase in the gold standard, and expresses confidence that the country's financial future is bright.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's natural resources, including land, minerals, and wildlife. The report states that the country is rich in natural resources, and that the government is committed to managing these resources in a sustainable and responsible manner. It also mentions the recent discovery of gold in California, and expresses confidence that the country's natural resources will continue to provide a source of wealth and prosperity for generations to come.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's military forces, including the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. The report states that the country's military forces are well-trained, well-equipped, and ready to defend the country against any threat. It also mentions the recent increase in the size of the military, and expresses confidence that the country's military will continue to be a source of strength and security for the nation.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the State, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the country's foreign relations, including its relations with other countries and its participation in international organizations. The report states that the country is committed to maintaining a policy of peace and cooperation with other nations, and that it is actively engaged in efforts to promote international trade and commerce. It also mentions the recent signing of the Treaty of Commerce with Great Britain, and expresses confidence that the country's foreign relations will continue to be a source of strength and security for the nation.

6. The sixth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's naval forces, including the Navy and the Marine Corps. The report states that the country's naval forces are well-trained, well-equipped, and ready to defend the country against any threat. It also mentions the recent increase in the size of the navy, and expresses confidence that the country's naval forces will continue to be a source of strength and security for the nation.

7. The seventh part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Army, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's army forces, including the Army and the Marine Corps. The report states that the country's army forces are well-trained, well-equipped, and ready to defend the country against any threat. It also mentions the recent increase in the size of the army, and expresses confidence that the country's army forces will continue to be a source of strength and security for the nation.
